

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
NOTE—All advertisers desiring to make changes in their ads should notify us of their intention to do so, not later than Monday.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Our paved streets need cleaning.
—Age and a little brother tell on a girl.

Spring fever microbes will shortly be doing their worst.

—We are now in the midst of the Lenten season.

The first of April is already starting some of us in the face.

—Which would you rather do—make garden or go fishing?

—Fire and Fire Sales this week. Always read the new ads.

—W. B. McCandless received another load of Davis machines, Monday.

—Don't forget the mass meeting in the Court House for tomorrow evening.

—The food interviewer was around last week, and misquoted everybody he talked to.

—Lots of men have foot first names because of a novel their mother happened to be reading.

—No, Maudie, dear, don't press a dish upon guests at dinner. It would be sure to soil his clothes.

—The Patterson Bros. have opened a complete wall paper store in the new Wick building on N. Main St. Road No. 127.

—McCafferty, the Greenville contractor, is taking out 250,000 tons of the "Bessie". One of his mills is located in Clinton twp.

Thirty-three liquor licenses were granted in Butler County out of fifty-four applications. Nineteen were granted in Adams Co.

—David E. Dale was elected a school director for the Fourth ward, and the Board last week, vice John Greer who moved into the Fifth ward.

—We direct attention to the Adv. of I. C. Black & Co. wall paper dealers. They are successors to Kinch, Main St. and have another store in Grove City.

—Twenty years ago there wasn't a young man in Butler who parted his hair in the middle. There are a dozen of 'em who do hardly anything else.

—A mine, who has recently returned from the goldfields, characterizes the time as the "Klondike" being the best thing of its kind that has struck the earth for three centuries.

—McVay's news depot on the Diamond was entered again last Thursday night but the thieves secured only a few pennies this time. Mac is tired of being robbed and takes his cash home with him.

—An exchange very cautiously remarks: Next to Hon. there is possibly no other title so much abused as that of Hon. In both cases those most entitled to it are becoming abused of it.

—The Boston Symphony Concert Co. is a first class orchestra, composed of thirty-five ladies with a male leader. They make the best of music and had a large audience in Butler last Friday night, for nearly every one.

—See and commit Dr. L. C. Pugh, the Osteopath, Evans City Pa. Tuesday's and Saturday's he is making a special offer to all calling on him until April 15. He has only a few more months treatment he will not ask you to pay.

—Co. E. was inspected Wednesday evening by inspecting officers. Maj. John Fenwick and Sergeant Moore. A large crowd was present. After inspection Co. E. and guests partook of an excellent banquet recognition afforded by mistake.

—A young lady student in our high school was asked to explain the formation of dew. Her answer was: "The earth revolves on its axis every 24 hours and in consequence of this it produces a wind which it travels, it perpetuates fire."

—The tremendous fire made by the burning hay in the field, is an argument against allowing large quantities of hay or other highly inflammable material to be stored within sight of the houses.

—The State Live Stock Sanitary Board will make a special examination of the desirability of providing for examination of cattle sold by dealers in Pennsylvania.

—The new town council of Butler met last Monday evening, and organized by electing George Stamm, President; H. E. Coulter, Secretary; Harry Grieb, Treasurer; and C. F. L. McCoin, Clerk. The council will meet on the 22nd.

—Every man, woman and child who has once tried that specific Bull Cough Syrup, cannot say enough in its praise.

—Boards wanted—Juryman, witness and all others attending Court will find nice comfortable rooms at the Boarding House, 125 S. Main St. Rates reasonable.

—All the best prints, black and white, silver-gray and indigo blue at 4 1/2c. good 5c. mail 4 and 4 1/2 at The People's Store.

The best bicycle to buy is a Cleveland or Crescent.

Bicycle supplies of all kinds; Vite Camera and the celebrated "Vite" magnifying glass and Kirpatrick the jeweler near the Court House.

PARK THEATRE.

MONDAY MAR 12TH. PULVER OF NEW YORK.

"Built to Amuse" is the catch line of this season's version of the "Pulse of New York" which comes to the Park Theatre, next Monday.

The old play has always been a great favorite, and this season the production is promised to be as great a hit as was its first. To keep abreast with the times, the production is being given in a new and improved form.

The following divorces have been granted: Mary C. Smith from George Smith; Julia Richardson from A. N. Richardson; Ella M. Thompson from Taylor Thompson.

After hearing the divorce cases of Florence Conley vs. A. L. Conley and Belle B. Carson vs. Duncan C. Carson, the court was held over in the latter case for 30 days.

Frank Murphy, Esq., Geo. Shyer, and Dr. J. E. Fry were appointed a commission in lunacy on Jacob Shearer, of Buffalo twp. Tuesday the commission adjudged him insane.

LEGAL NEWS.

The March term of Quarter Sessions Court convened Monday morning. Judge J. M. McKeen presided. The Grand Jury, J. Orr, constable of Mercer twp., reported some index books needing re-arranging. The Court granted a rule on the road supervisors returnable to March term. B. Conn, constable of Clay, reported a bad order and a rule to repair was made on supervisors and P. B. & L. E. R. Co. Geo. Watson, Clinton, reported that the P. B. & L. E. Co. had been ordered to repair and index boards down, and rule to repair granted. Geo. Watson, Clinton, reported that the P. B. & L. E. Co. had been ordered to repair and index boards down, and rule to repair granted.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Our paved streets need cleaning.
—Age and a little brother tell on a girl.

Spring fever microbes will shortly be doing their worst.

—We are now in the midst of the Lenten season.

The first of April is already starting some of us in the face.

—Which would you rather do—make garden or go fishing?

—Fire and Fire Sales this week. Always read the new ads.

—W. B. McCandless received another load of Davis machines, Monday.

—Don't forget the mass meeting in the Court House for tomorrow evening.

—The food interviewer was around last week, and misquoted everybody he talked to.

—Lots of men have foot first names because of a novel their mother happened to be reading.

—No, Maudie, dear, don't press a dish upon guests at dinner. It would be sure to soil his clothes.

—The Patterson Bros. have opened a complete wall paper store in the new Wick building on N. Main St. Road No. 127.

—McCafferty, the Greenville contractor, is taking out 250,000 tons of the "Bessie". One of his mills is located in Clinton twp.

Thirty-three liquor licenses were granted in Butler County out of fifty-four applications. Nineteen were granted in Adams Co.

—David E. Dale was elected a school director for the Fourth ward, and the Board last week, vice John Greer who moved into the Fifth ward.

—We direct attention to the Adv. of I. C. Black & Co. wall paper dealers. They are successors to Kinch, Main St. and have another store in Grove City.

—Twenty years ago there wasn't a young man in Butler who parted his hair in the middle. There are a dozen of 'em who do hardly anything else.

—A mine, who has recently returned from the goldfields, characterizes the time as the "Klondike" being the best thing of its kind that has struck the earth for three centuries.

—McVay's news depot on the Diamond was entered again last Thursday night but the thieves secured only a few pennies this time. Mac is tired of being robbed and takes his cash home with him.

—An exchange very cautiously remarks: Next to Hon. there is possibly no other title so much abused as that of Hon. In both cases those most entitled to it are becoming abused of it.

—The Boston Symphony Concert Co. is a first class orchestra, composed of thirty-five ladies with a male leader. They make the best of music and had a large audience in Butler last Friday night, for nearly every one.

—See and commit Dr. L. C. Pugh, the Osteopath, Evans City Pa. Tuesday's and Saturday's he is making a special offer to all calling on him until April 15. He has only a few more months treatment he will not ask you to pay.

—Co. E. was inspected Wednesday evening by inspecting officers. Maj. John Fenwick and Sergeant Moore. A large crowd was present. After inspection Co. E. and guests partook of an excellent banquet recognition afforded by mistake.

—A young lady student in our high school was asked to explain the formation of dew. Her answer was: "The earth revolves on its axis every 24 hours and in consequence of this it produces a wind which it travels, it perpetuates fire."

—The tremendous fire made by the burning hay in the field, is an argument against allowing large quantities of hay or other highly inflammable material to be stored within sight of the houses.

—The State Live Stock Sanitary Board will make a special examination of the desirability of providing for examination of cattle sold by dealers in Pennsylvania.

—The new town council of Butler met last Monday evening, and organized by electing George Stamm, President; H. E. Coulter, Secretary; Harry Grieb, Treasurer; and C. F. L. McCoin, Clerk. The council will meet on the 22nd.

—Every man, woman and child who has once tried that specific Bull Cough Syrup, cannot say enough in its praise.

—Boards wanted—Juryman, witness and all others attending Court will find nice comfortable rooms at the Boarding House, 125 S. Main St. Rates reasonable.

—All the best prints, black and white, silver-gray and indigo blue at 4 1/2c. good 5c. mail 4 and 4 1/2 at The People's Store.

The best bicycle to buy is a Cleveland or Crescent.

Bicycle supplies of all kinds; Vite Camera and the celebrated "Vite" magnifying glass and Kirpatrick the jeweler near the Court House.

PARK THEATRE.

MONDAY MAR 12TH. PULVER OF NEW YORK.

"Built to Amuse" is the catch line of this season's version of the "Pulse of New York" which comes to the Park Theatre, next Monday.

The old play has always been a great favorite, and this season the production is promised to be as great a hit as was its first. To keep abreast with the times, the production is being given in a new and improved form.

The following divorces have been granted: Mary C. Smith from George Smith; Julia Richardson from A. N. Richardson; Ella M. Thompson from Taylor Thompson.

After hearing the divorce cases of Florence Conley vs. A. L. Conley and Belle B. Carson vs. Duncan C. Carson, the court was held over in the latter case for 30 days.

Frank Murphy, Esq., Geo. Shyer, and Dr. J. E. Fry were appointed a commission in lunacy on Jacob Shearer, of Buffalo twp. Tuesday the commission adjudged him insane.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Angus McDonald of the 8th ward is seriously ill.
Raymond Cornelius Esq. spent Sunday with friends in Worth twp.
M. A. Hendrickson of Cranberry twp., was in town, Tuesday.
Will O'Brien leaves town, Sunday, for the gold fields in Washington.

LEGAL NEWS.

The March term of Quarter Sessions Court convened Monday morning. Judge J. M. McKeen presided. The Grand Jury, J. Orr, constable of Mercer twp., reported some index books needing re-arranging. The Court granted a rule on the road supervisors returnable to March term. B. Conn, constable of Clay, reported a bad order and a rule to repair was made on supervisors and P. B. & L. E. R. Co. Geo. Watson, Clinton, reported that the P. B. & L. E. Co. had been ordered to repair and index boards down, and rule to repair granted.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Our paved streets need cleaning.
—Age and a little brother tell on a girl.

Spring fever microbes will shortly be doing their worst.

—We are now in the midst of the Lenten season.

The first of April is already starting some of us in the face.

—Which would you rather do—make garden or go fishing?

—Fire and Fire Sales this week. Always read the new ads.

—W. B. McCandless received another load of Davis machines, Monday.

—Don't forget the mass meeting in the Court House for tomorrow evening.

—The food interviewer was around last week, and misquoted everybody he talked to.

—Lots of men have foot first names because of a novel their mother happened to be reading.

—No, Maudie, dear, don't press a dish upon guests at dinner. It would be sure to soil his clothes.

—The Patterson Bros. have opened a complete wall paper store in the new Wick building on N. Main St. Road No. 127.

—McCafferty, the Greenville contractor, is taking out 250,000 tons of the "Bessie". One of his mills is located in Clinton twp.

Thirty-three liquor licenses were granted in Butler County out of fifty-four applications. Nineteen were granted in Adams Co.

—David E. Dale was elected a school director for the Fourth ward, and the Board last week, vice John Greer who moved into the Fifth ward.

—We direct attention to the Adv. of I. C. Black & Co. wall paper dealers. They are successors to Kinch, Main St. and have another store in Grove City.

—Twenty years ago there wasn't a young man in Butler who parted his hair in the middle. There are a dozen of 'em who do hardly anything else.

—A mine, who has recently returned from the goldfields, characterizes the time as the "Klondike" being the best thing of its kind that has struck the earth for three centuries.

—McVay's news depot on the Diamond was entered again last Thursday night but the thieves secured only a few pennies this time. Mac is tired of being robbed and takes his cash home with him.

—An exchange very cautiously remarks: Next to Hon. there is possibly no other title so much abused as that of Hon. In both cases those most entitled to it are becoming abused of it.

—The Boston Symphony Concert Co. is a first class orchestra, composed of thirty-five ladies with a male leader. They make the best of music and had a large audience in Butler last Friday night, for nearly every one.

—See and commit Dr. L. C. Pugh, the Osteopath, Evans City Pa. Tuesday's and Saturday's he is making a special offer to all calling on him until April 15. He has only a few more months treatment he will not ask you to pay.

—Co. E. was inspected Wednesday evening by inspecting officers. Maj. John Fenwick and Sergeant Moore. A large crowd was present. After inspection Co. E. and guests partook of an excellent banquet recognition afforded by mistake.

—A young lady student in our high school was asked to explain the formation of dew. Her answer was: "The earth revolves on its axis every 24 hours and in consequence of this it produces a wind which it travels, it perpetuates fire."

—The tremendous fire made by the burning hay in the field, is an argument against allowing large quantities of hay or other highly inflammable material to be stored within sight of the houses.

—The State Live Stock Sanitary Board will make a special examination of the desirability of providing for examination of cattle sold by dealers in Pennsylvania.

—The new town council of Butler met last Monday evening, and organized by electing George Stamm, President; H. E. Coulter, Secretary; Harry Grieb, Treasurer; and C. F. L. McCoin, Clerk. The council will meet on the 22nd.

—Every man, woman and child who has once tried that specific Bull Cough Syrup, cannot say enough in its praise.

—Boards wanted—Juryman, witness and all others attending Court will find nice comfortable rooms at the Boarding House, 125 S. Main St. Rates reasonable.

—All the best prints, black and white, silver-gray and indigo blue at 4 1/2c. good 5c. mail 4 and 4 1/2 at The People's Store.

The best bicycle to buy is a Cleveland or Crescent.

Bicycle supplies of all kinds; Vite Camera and the celebrated "Vite" magnifying glass and Kirpatrick the jeweler near the Court House.

PARK THEATRE.

MONDAY MAR 12TH. PULVER OF NEW YORK.

"Built to Amuse" is the catch line of this season's version of the "Pulse of New York" which comes to the Park Theatre, next Monday.

The old play has always been a great favorite, and this season the production is promised to be as great a hit as was its first. To keep abreast with the times, the production is being given in a new and improved form.

The following divorces have been granted: Mary C. Smith from George Smith; Julia Richardson from A. N. Richardson; Ella M. Thompson from Taylor Thompson.

After hearing the divorce cases of Florence Conley vs. A. L. Conley and Belle B. Carson vs. Duncan C. Carson, the court was held over in the latter case for 30 days.

Frank Murphy, Esq., Geo. Shyer, and Dr. J. E. Fry were appointed a commission in lunacy on Jacob Shearer, of Buffalo twp. Tuesday the commission adjudged him insane.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Angus McDonald of the 8th ward is seriously ill.
Raymond Cornelius Esq. spent Sunday with friends in Worth twp.
M. A. Hendrickson of Cranberry twp., was in town, Tuesday.
Will O'Brien leaves town, Sunday, for the gold fields in Washington.

LEGAL NEWS.

The March term of Quarter Sessions Court convened Monday morning. Judge J. M. McKeen presided. The Grand Jury, J. Orr, constable of Mercer twp., reported some index books needing re-arranging. The Court granted a rule on the road supervisors returnable to March term. B. Conn, constable of Clay, reported a bad order and a rule to repair was made on supervisors and P. B. & L. E. R. Co. Geo. Watson, Clinton, reported that the P. B. & L. E. Co. had been ordered to repair and index boards down, and rule to repair granted.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Our paved streets need cleaning.
—Age and a little brother tell on a girl.

Spring fever microbes will shortly be doing their worst.

—We are now in the midst of the Lenten season.

The first of April is already starting some of us in the face.

—Which would you rather do—make garden or go fishing?

—Fire and Fire Sales this week. Always read the new ads.

—W. B. McCandless received another load of Davis machines, Monday.

—Don't forget the mass meeting in the Court House for tomorrow evening.

—The food interviewer was around last week, and misquoted everybody he talked to.

—Lots of men have foot first names because of a novel their mother happened to be reading.

—No, Maudie, dear, don't press a dish upon guests at dinner. It would be sure to soil his clothes.

—The Patterson Bros. have opened a complete wall paper store in the new Wick building on N. Main St. Road No. 127.

—McCafferty, the Greenville contractor, is taking out 250,000 tons of the "Bessie". One of his mills is located in Clinton twp.

Thirty-three liquor licenses were granted in Butler County out of fifty-four applications. Nineteen were granted in Adams Co.

—David E. Dale was elected a school director for the Fourth ward, and the Board last week, vice John Greer who moved into the Fifth ward.

—We direct attention to the Adv. of I. C. Black & Co. wall paper dealers. They are successors to Kinch, Main St. and have another store in Grove City.

—Twenty years ago there wasn't a young man in Butler who parted his hair in the middle. There are a dozen of 'em who do hardly anything else.

—A mine, who has recently returned from the goldfields, characterizes the time as the "Klondike" being the best thing of its kind that has struck the earth for three centuries.

—McVay's news depot on the Diamond was entered again last Thursday night but the thieves secured only a few pennies this time. Mac is tired of being robbed and takes his cash home with him.

—An exchange very cautiously remarks: Next to Hon. there is possibly no other title so much abused as that of Hon. In both cases those most entitled to it are becoming abused of it.

—The Boston Symphony Concert Co. is a first class orchestra, composed of thirty-five ladies with a male leader. They make the best of music and had a large audience in Butler last Friday night, for nearly every one.

—See and commit Dr. L. C. Pugh, the Osteopath, Evans City Pa. Tuesday's and Saturday's he is making a special offer to all calling on him until April 15. He has only a few more months treatment he will not ask you to pay.

—Co. E. was inspected Wednesday evening by inspecting officers. Maj. John Fenwick and Sergeant Moore. A large crowd was present. After inspection Co. E. and guests partook of an excellent banquet recognition afforded by mistake.

—A young lady student in our high school was asked to explain the formation of dew. Her answer was: "The earth revolves on its axis every 24 hours and in consequence of this it produces a wind which it travels, it perpetuates fire."

—The tremendous fire made by the burning hay in the field, is an argument against allowing large quantities of hay or other highly inflammable material to be stored within sight of the houses.

—The State Live Stock Sanitary Board will make a special examination of the desirability of providing for examination of cattle sold by dealers in Pennsylvania.

—The new town council of Butler met last Monday evening, and organized by electing George Stamm, President; H. E. Coulter, Secretary; Harry Grieb, Treasurer; and C. F. L. McCoin, Clerk. The council will meet on the 22nd.

—Every man, woman and child who has once tried that specific Bull Cough Syrup, cannot say enough in its praise.

—Boards wanted—Juryman, witness and all others attending Court will find nice comfortable rooms at the Boarding House, 125 S. Main St. Rates reasonable.

—All the best prints, black and white, silver-gray and indigo blue at 4 1/2c. good 5c. mail 4 and 4 1/2 at The People's Store.

The best bicycle to buy is a Cleveland or Crescent.

Bicycle supplies of all kinds; Vite Camera and the celebrated "Vite" magnifying glass and Kirpatrick the jeweler near the Court House.

PARK THEATRE.

MONDAY MAR 12TH. PULVER OF NEW YORK.

"Built to Amuse" is the catch line of this season's version of the "Pulse of New York" which comes to the Park Theatre, next Monday.

The old play has always been a great favorite, and this season the production is promised to be as great a hit as was its first. To keep abreast with the times, the production is being given in a new and improved form.

The following divorces have been granted: Mary C. Smith from George Smith; Julia Richardson from A. N. Richardson; Ella M. Thompson from Taylor Thompson.

After hearing the divorce cases of Florence Conley vs. A. L. Conley and Belle B. Carson vs. Duncan C. Carson, the court was held over in the latter case for 30 days.

Frank Murphy, Esq., Geo. Shyer, and Dr. J. E. Fry were appointed a commission in lunacy on Jacob Shearer, of Buffalo twp. Tuesday the commission adjudged him insane.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Angus McDonald of the 8th ward is seriously ill.
Raymond Cornelius Esq. spent Sunday with friends in Worth twp.
M. A. Hendrickson of Cranberry twp., was in town, Tuesday.
Will O'Brien leaves town, Sunday, for the gold fields in Washington.

LEGAL NEWS.

The March term of Quarter Sessions Court convened Monday morning. Judge J. M. McKeen presided. The Grand Jury, J. Orr, constable of Mercer twp., reported some index books needing re-arranging. The Court granted a rule on the road supervisors returnable to March term. B. Conn, constable of Clay, reported a bad order and a rule to repair was made on supervisors and P. B. & L. E. R. Co. Geo. Watson, Clinton, reported that the P. B. & L. E. Co. had been ordered to repair and index boards down, and rule to repair granted.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Our paved streets need cleaning.
—Age and a little brother tell on a girl.

Spring fever microbes will shortly be doing their worst.

—We are now in the midst of the Lenten season.

The first of April is already starting some of us in the face.

—Which would you rather do—make garden or go fishing?

—Fire and Fire Sales this week. Always read the new ads.

—W. B. McCandless received another load of Davis machines, Monday.

—Don't forget the mass meeting in the Court House for tomorrow evening.

—The food interviewer was around last week, and misquoted everybody he talked to.

—Lots of men have foot first names because of a novel their mother happened to be reading.

—No, Maudie, dear, don't press a dish upon guests at dinner. It would be sure to soil his clothes.

—The Patterson Bros. have opened a complete wall paper store in the new Wick building on N. Main St. Road No. 127.

—McCafferty, the Greenville contractor, is taking out 250,000 tons of the "Bessie". One of his mills is located in Clinton twp.

Thirty-three liquor licenses were granted in Butler County out of fifty-four applications. Nineteen were granted in Adams Co.

—David E. Dale was elected a school director for the Fourth ward, and the Board last week, vice John Greer who moved into the Fifth ward.

—We direct attention to the Adv. of I. C. Black & Co. wall paper dealers. They are successors to Kinch